Joe,

May you grind your gears
on Mustang. My car is better.
Remember, stay away from you know who. This year was awesome.
Chow Baby.

Ted (Awesome)

Joe,

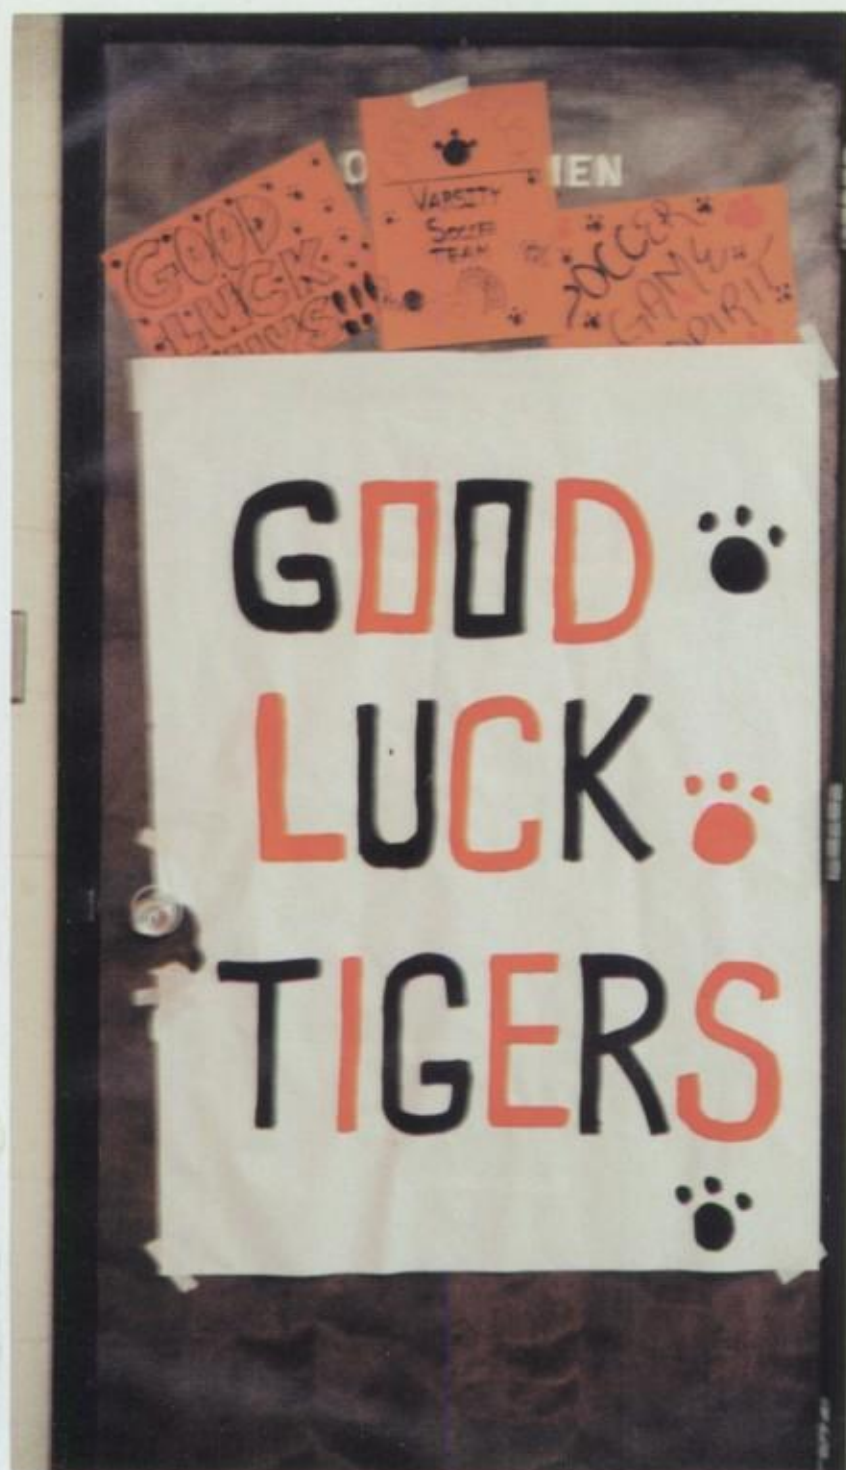

My car is better than yours.
"73 Grand Prix's" rule. You were an awesome dude and you made this year great. Another thing I wanted to tell you is that my Spada imitations are better than yours. Lotsa luck in the future,
- Jim Melis

P.S. - Did I tell you the one about this guy who walked into a bar - and it hurt?

P.P.S - Don't look at pg. 141

More

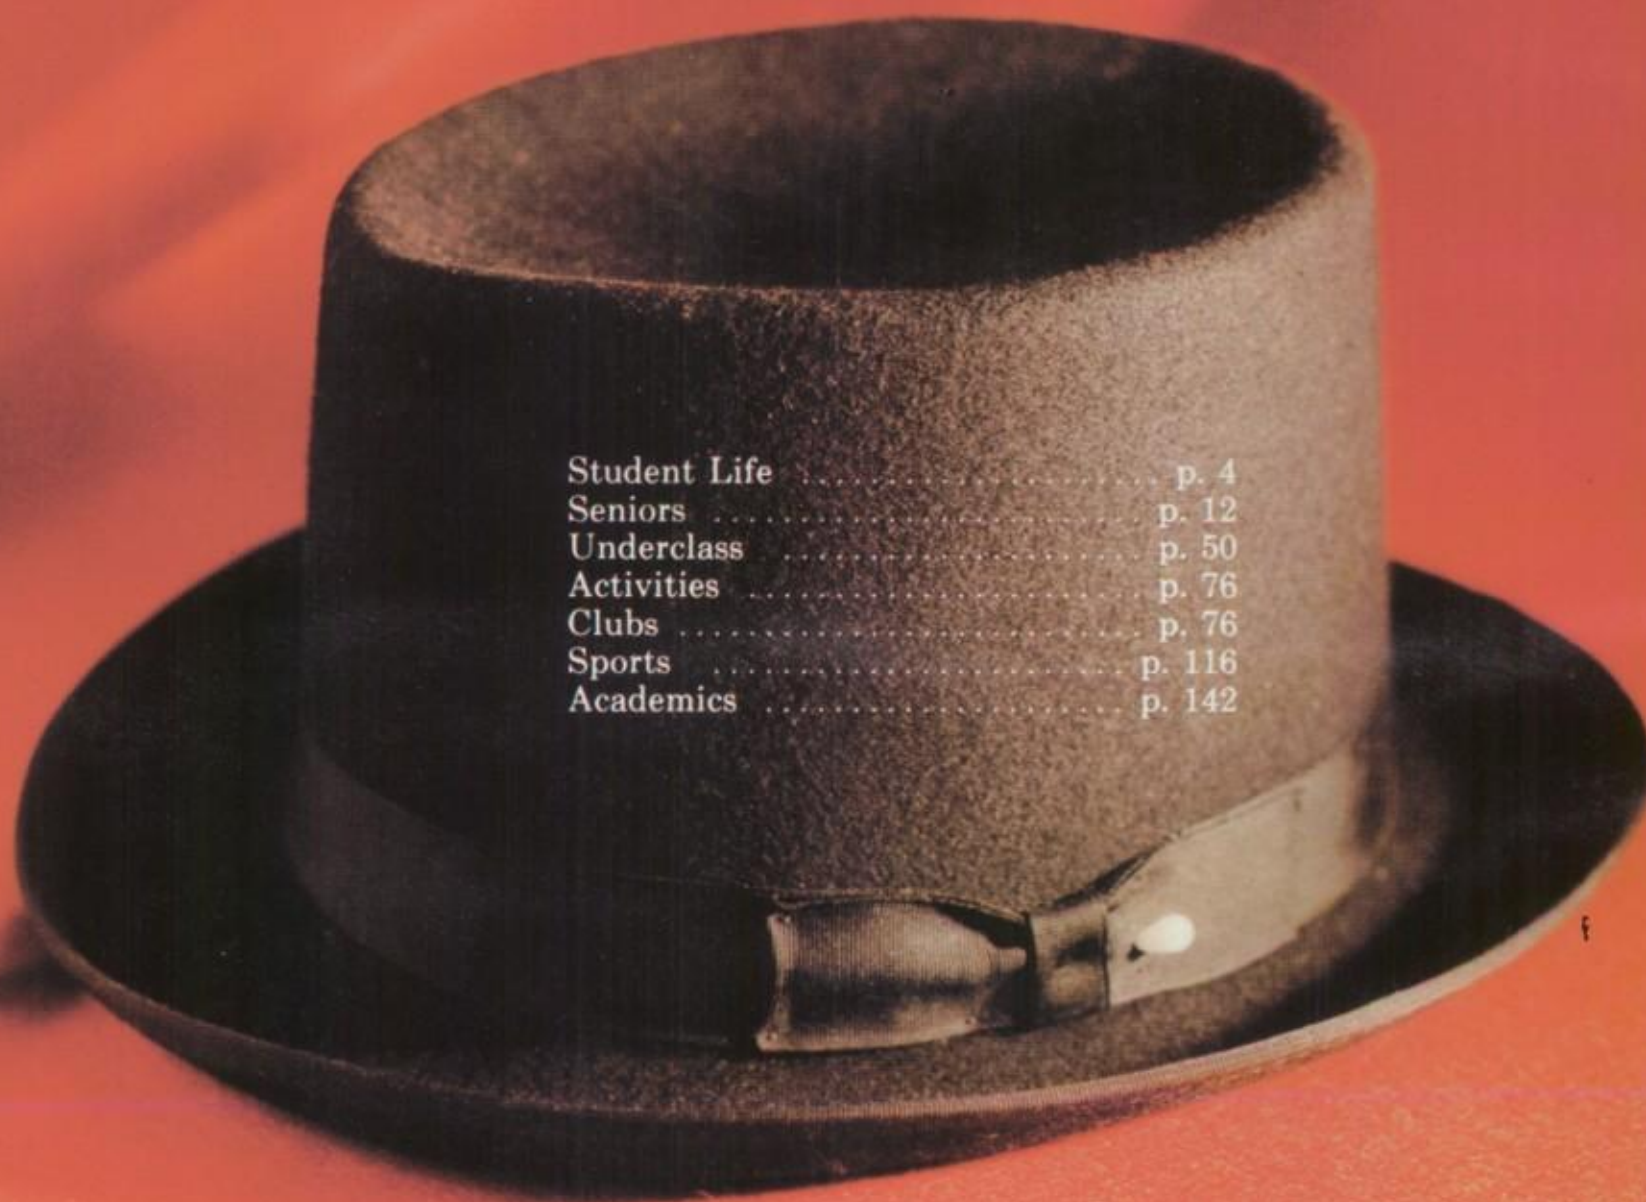

Joe,
It's been a long 4 yrs,
but won't it all worth it?
The time in Spain, w/ our ridley (KMB #1) + the stimulating dramas in Moth. These were the good times but have a great time to be seen. Have a time in California + an awesome future. Good luck

A CLASS ACT!

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times," begins one of the most famous works of literature in our society. This quote, though written long ago, accurately reflects our years in Tenaflly High School. While we fumbled as freshmen, struggled as sophomores, journeyed through junior year and have finally swung into senior year, we have always been A CLASS ACT.

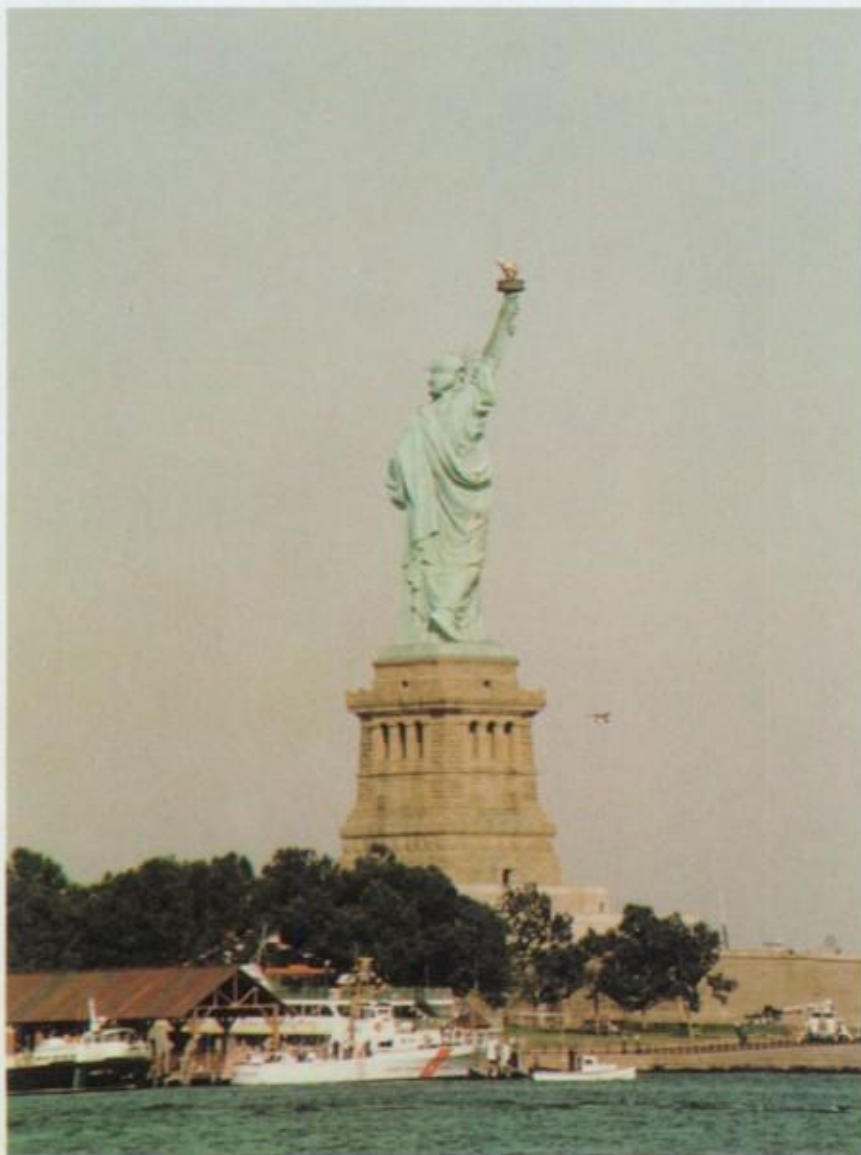

Our four years at Tenaflly High School have at times seemed long and hard and at other times appeared to fly by. We've spent many hours working to make our class the best it possibly could be. We began as freshmen making new friends, and trying to adjust to many unfamiliar events and situations. As sophomores we were stuck between the limitations of freshman year and the responsibilities of being upperclassmen. With junior year came PSATs, SATs, and the realization that college was only a short while away. Now, as seniors, we have finally reached the end of our four year class act.

On July 4th, 1986, when the Statue of Liberty celebrated her 100th birthday, the whole nation experienced a special feeling of unity. For one day, it did not matter what part of the nation one was from. Everyone felt involved in the event, just as the whole school reacts during activities such as the Olympics and Spirit Week. The faculty, students and administrators of Tenaflly High School have made a commitment to excel in all aspects of school life. We have kept that commitment and have succeeded in making Tenaflly High School one of the best public high schools in New Jersey. Tenaflly High School is made up of over 950 students, each of whom contributed to the school in his or her own unique way.

Our class's ultimate class act was having our prom at Tavern on the Green. Although there was great expense and work involved, the class rallied behind the idea and raised enough money to achieve its goal. This only proved that the future of the class of '87 was limitless.

The reason we, the Staff of Tenaflly 87 chose A Class Act as the yearbook's theme was because we felt it correctly portrayed the spirit and character of the class of '87. No matter what the future holds for our class, we will always remember our times at Tenaflly High School and we know we will be remembered. In our four years we participated in many events; and, no matter whether we won or lost, succeeded or failed, we have always been a class act, and we have always had fun.

STUDENT LIFE

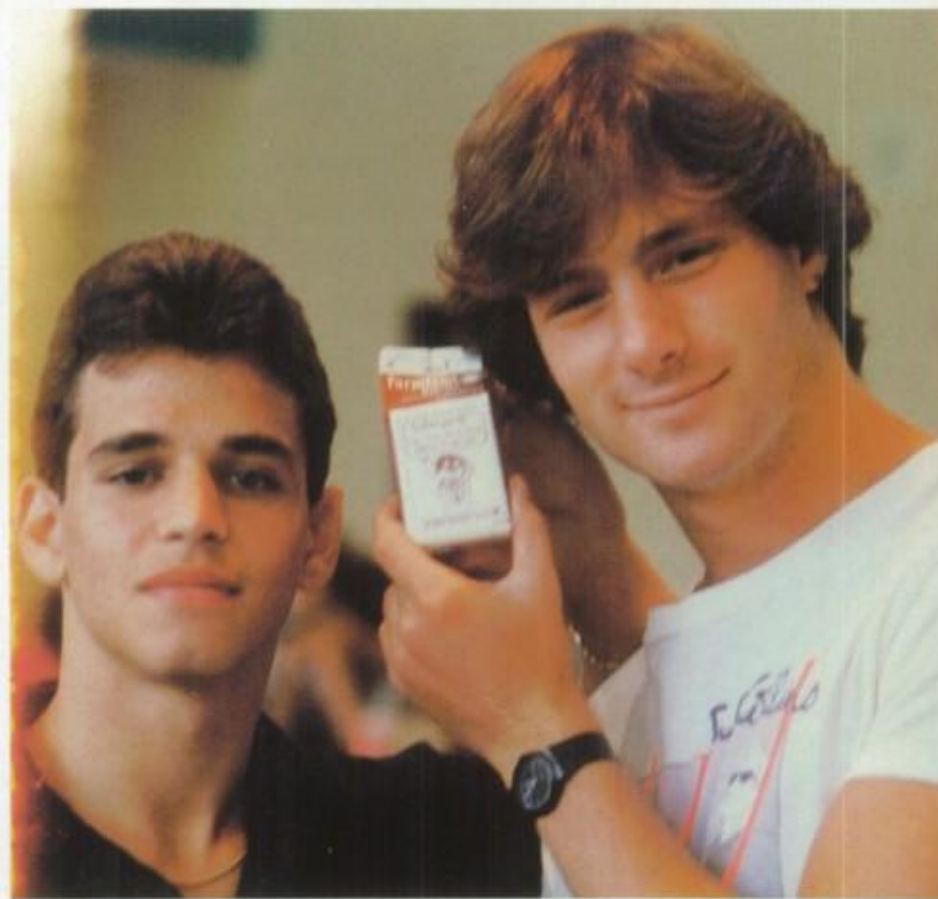

True Colors

With very few exceptions, the 1987 Varsity Smiling Team has its act together.

After four years at T.H.S., David Puteska and Richard Volin have learned to always listen to Safety Pup.

Scott Edwards, Lara Flater, and Jon Kinne prove that seniors really do have more fun.

The wondrous events at T.H.S. preoccupy some freshmen and take their minds off the camera.

Knowing that they represent the future of the world the seniors calmly start their day.

Franklin Parlamis and Nina Smilari wait on the front curb for the bus to take them to school.

Senior Class Vice President Jon Weisgal scouts out locations for the Senior Prom.

Through the magic of a self-timer, photographer Kevin Jahoda makes it into Tenakin.

Tami Luchow and Louise Wulfohn survive another tough day arm-in-arm.

Natalie Trapnehis and Harriet Kornfeld cannot be serious for even one minute.

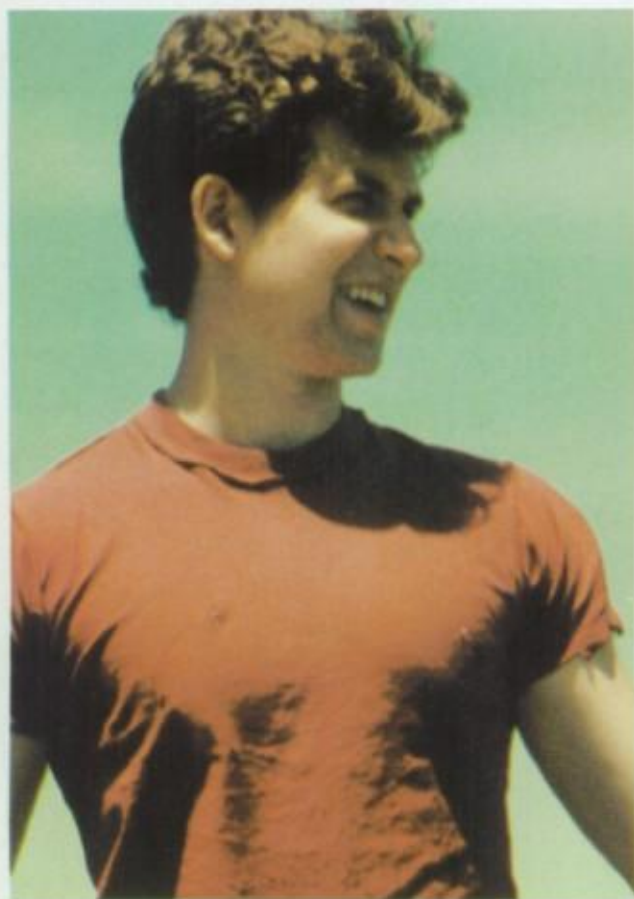

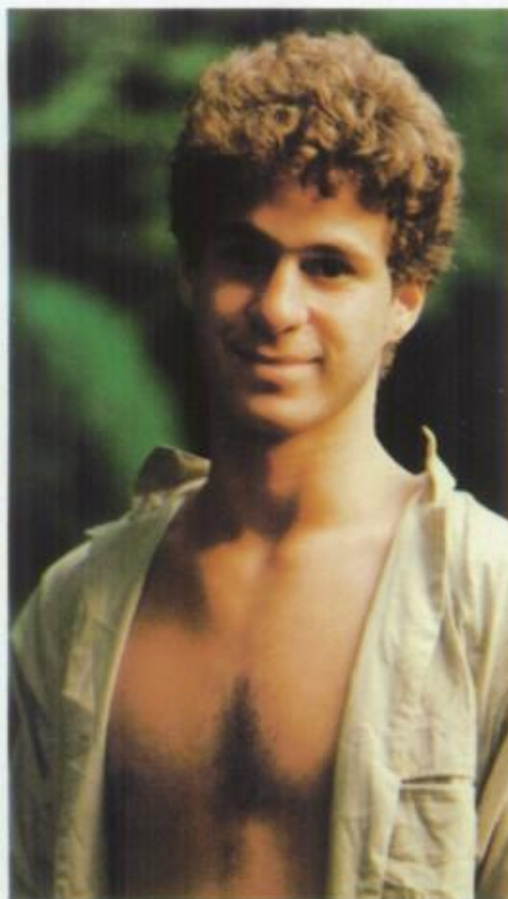

Spirited Seniors

Louise Wulfsohn takes a break from the hustle and bustle of the Tiger Den to flash a quick smile.

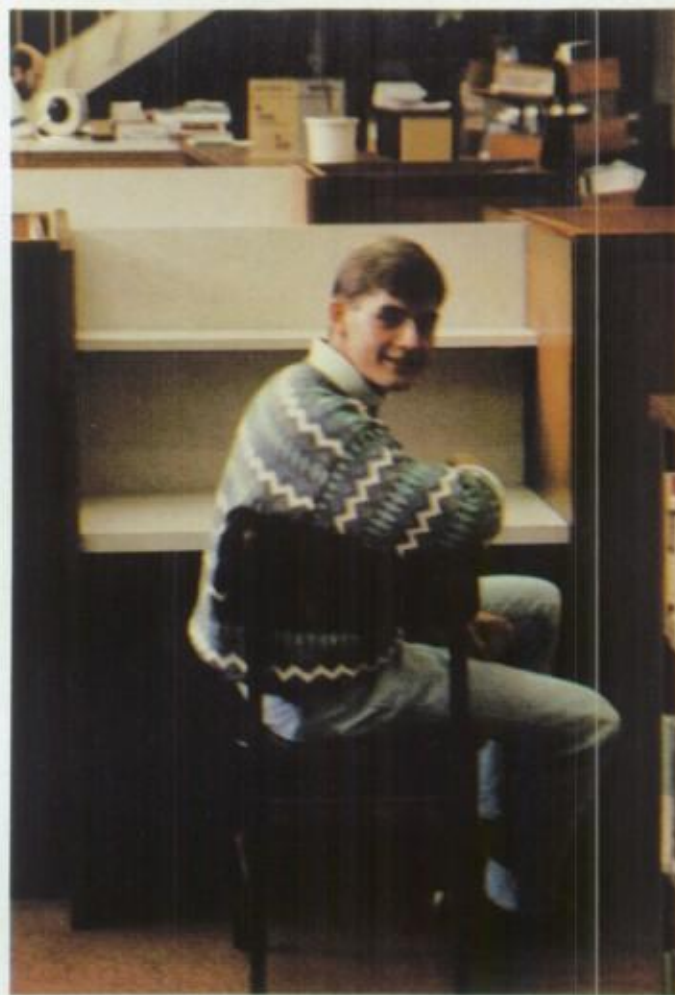

Here he is: the man, the myth, the legend — Eli Khazzam.

Here is David Levy only moments before his Chippendale's audition.

Seniors Lena Kim, Jen Maloney, and Thea Migel pose as the three musketeers.

Pretending to study, Cameron Logan is really only considering life, the universe, and everything.

The Staff of Tenakin '87 challenges anyone to prove that Rich Volin has no class spirit.

S. models show off the United Colors of Benneton.

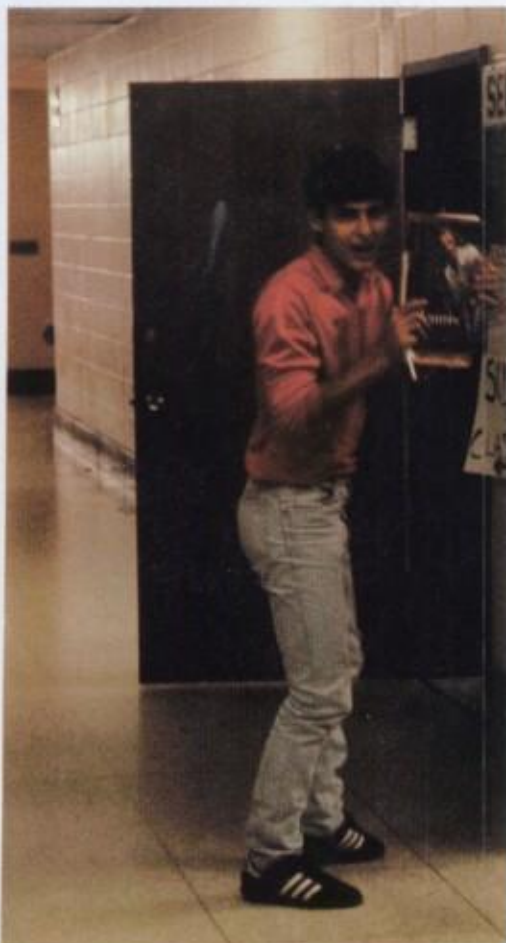

The purple people eater Peter Geissler just can't keep his mind on his work.

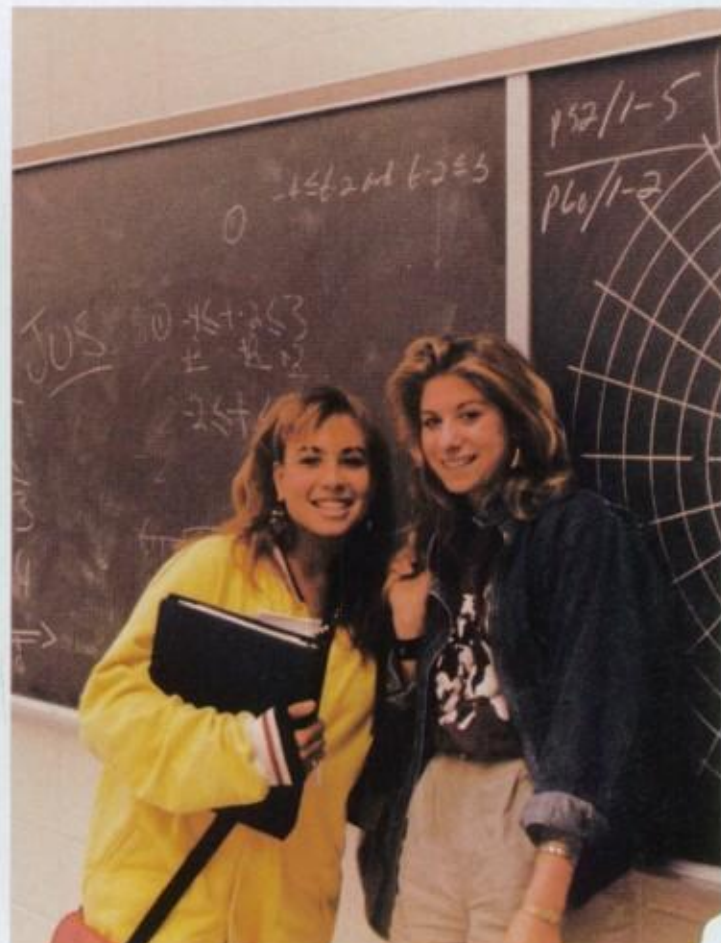

Lisa Husschman and Julie Lovejoy use up valuable IDT time just smiling away.

Dror Bakshi proves it really is his picture in this month's Tennis Illustrated.

Katie Kornfeld and Justine Kolb: what else can you say?

SENIORS

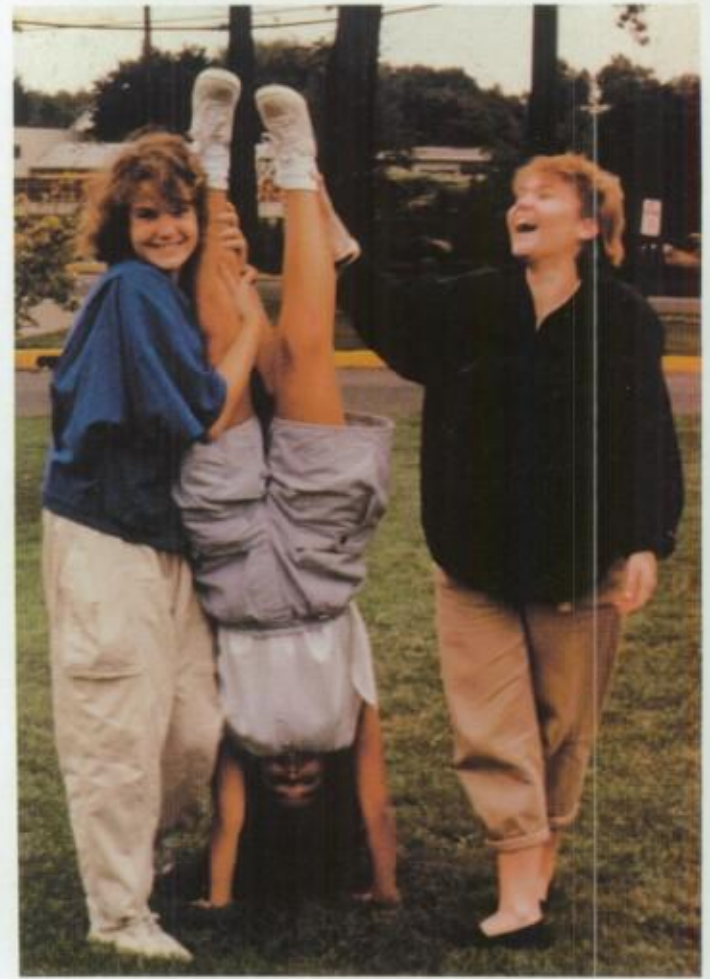

Seniors Show Off Their Colors

Featuring Mr. Mullin and crew pretending to be animal house mods 16-17.

Lora Ackerman and Phillipa Booth are amazed by the gymnastic feet of Johanna Gutierrez.

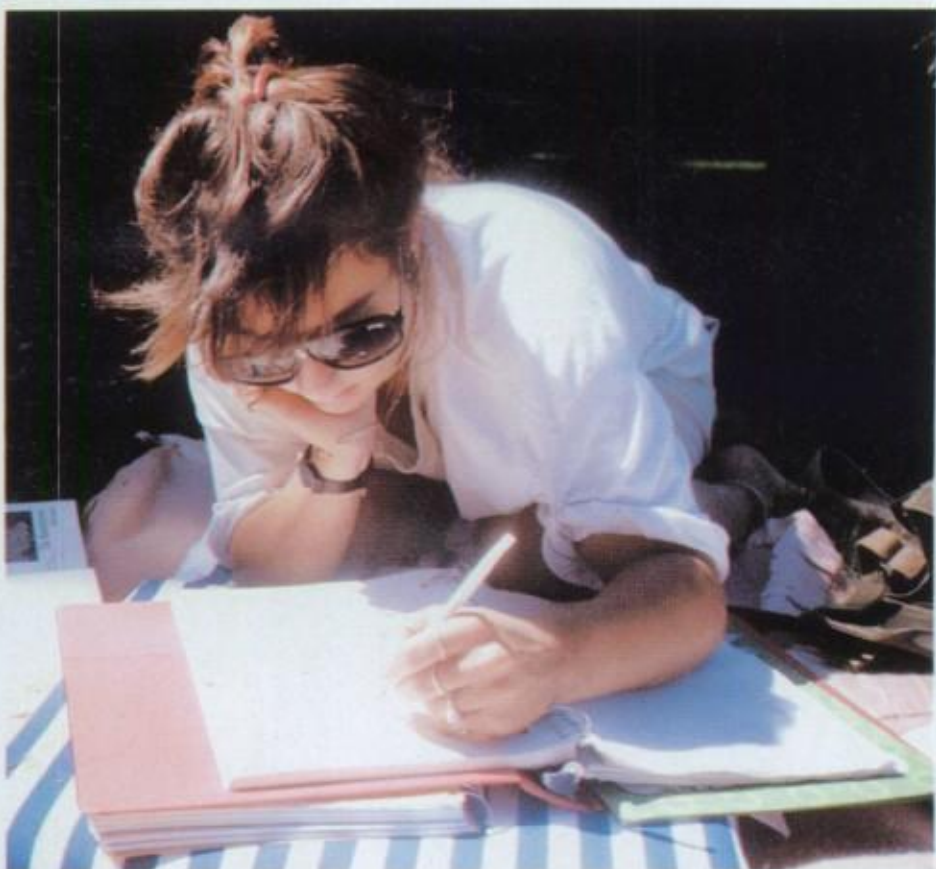

Mike Satran can't understand Scott Amendola's reaction to the idea of having a Prom at Rich's backyard.

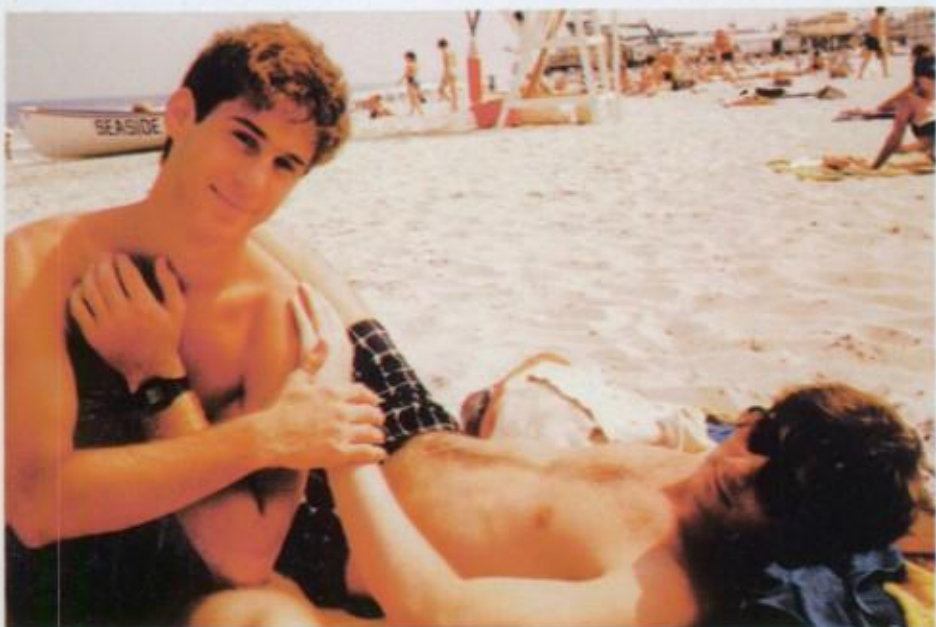

Andrea Bottigliero is just as amazed as you are about this being the fourteenth page in full color.

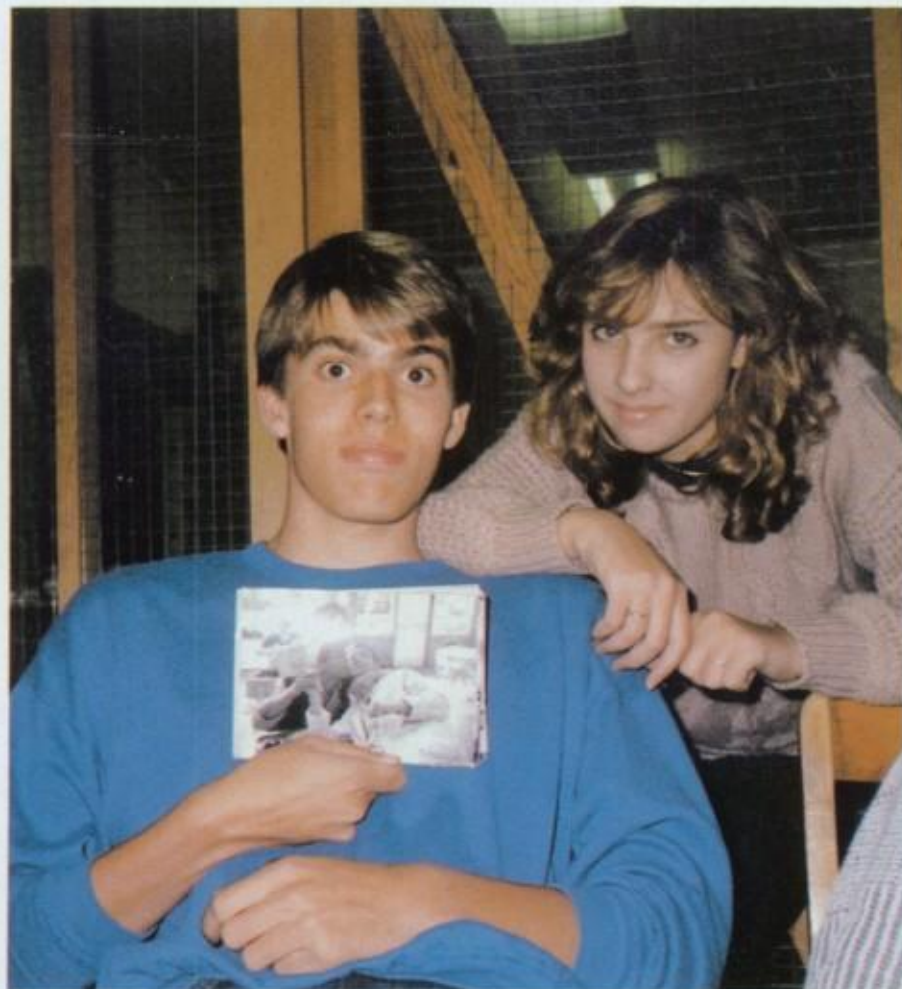

Posing for a Tenakin action shot, Caroline Fraser, Ilana Eden and Tracey Fink stop and smile.

A ray of sunshine seems to be the only cure for Micheline Wolf's senioritis.

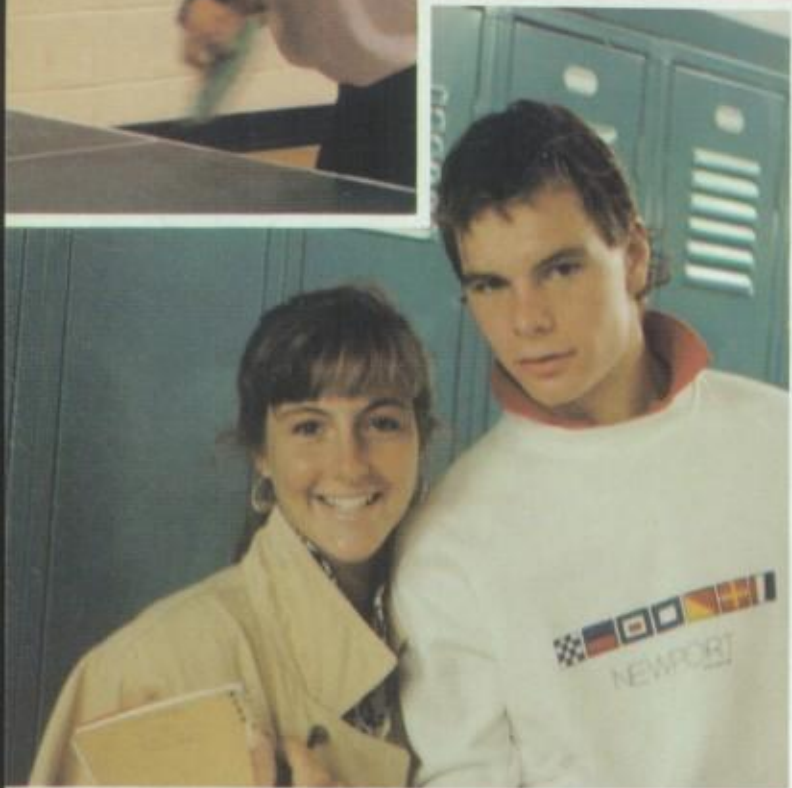

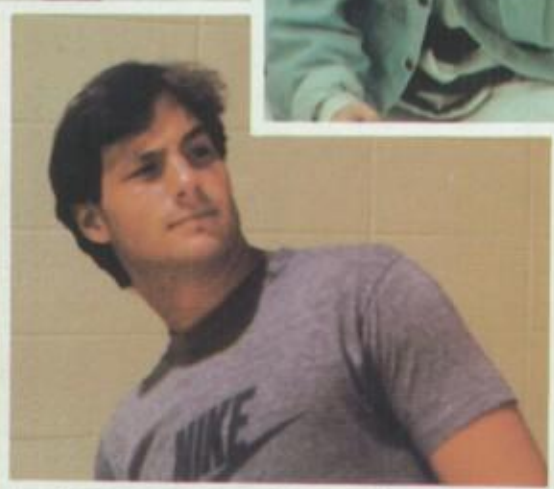

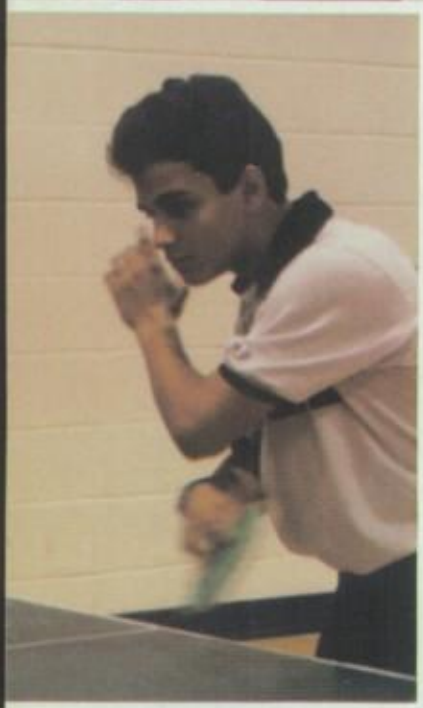

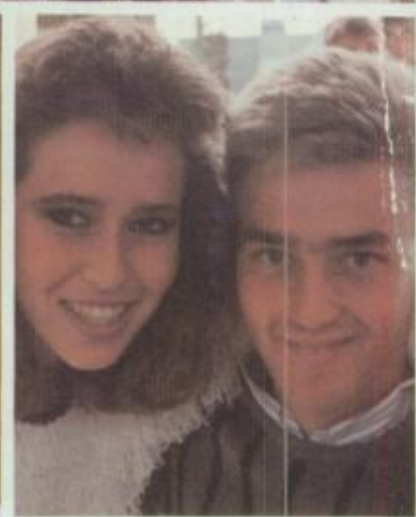

David Levy and Rich Volin, the rest of this caption is up to your imagination.

Eric Schnabel and Kris Muhfelder proudly display their favorite yearbook candid.

Mystery guest, Eric Schnabel, gets no respect.

Guitar star, Darren Lolk, aka Eddie Van Halen, strums up a storm at the Talent Show.

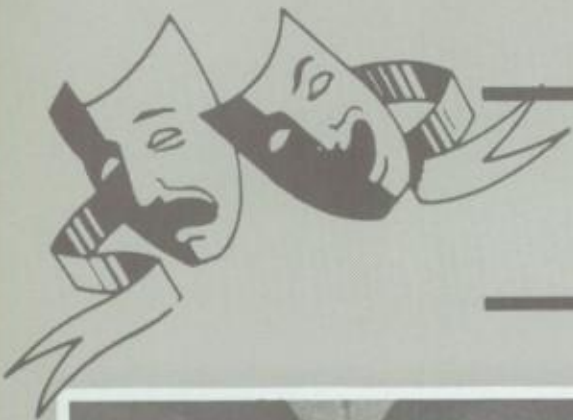

Singing comes naturally to Amy Isacowitz.

Talent Show '86 was a great success. Under the direction of Kevin Jahoda, and Mr. Kase, the show raised $1,000 for the Music Dept. The MC's Dave Levy and Mike Wartell brought on many mystery guests and kept the time between acts very interesting.

Anonymous, Natural Causes, and Gentleman Unknown rocked T.H.S. Jamie Stern and Amy Isacowitz sang their way into the hearts of many adoring fans. Manuela Miccoli and Faith Szalay danced to new heights, and were given the name "The Higher Lovers" Although there was no winner this year, the caliber and professionalism of the acts made them all winners.

M. Miccoli is comforted by N. Trapnehis' kind words

The nuns listen intently to M. Miccoli.

The 1986 fall play was "The Cradle Song", written by the famous Spanish playwrights, Gregorio and Maria Martinez Sierra.

Set in the late 1800's, the play revolved around a group of nuns who lived in a secluded convent. One day a baby girl was left at their door, and they decided to keep her.

The presence of the child had a great effect on the sisters since nothing like it had happened in the hundreds of years that the convent had existed. Many of them were very awkward around the baby, without many ideas on how to care for it.

In the second act, the girl was eighteen years old. She was preparing to leave the convent to marry a young man she had met, and travel to South America. It was obvious that many of the nuns had changed during the course of her upbringing.

Play

She seemed to have enhanced certain qualities about each of them. The sisters have all grown quite close to her, some closer than others, and they were obviously torn to see her go. She left in a dramatic finale that had much of the audience in tears.

The actors performing were from every grade, many of them regulars on the THS stage. The cast included: Kori Benaroya, Phillipa Booth, Jen Cohn, Jordana Jacobs, Sheila Kenny, Justine Kolb, Erik Kristensen, Manuela Miccoli, Mark Ramos, Lauren Rosen, Marco Schnabel, Julie Siegel, Amanda Sorvino, Jamie Stern, Faith Szalay, and Natalie Traphnehis. Andrea Bottligliero was the stage manager, and Jon Klein assistant stage manager. Mat Verna and Ben King designed the set, and numerous members of the tech crew helped them construct it.

S. Kenny and J. Kolb give a few words of advice.

The nuns ponder M. Miccoli's departure.

A touching departure scene brings the play to a close.

Despite the beliefs of those who felt that the halls were too costly to decorate, streamers, balloons and contact paper were not limited to the confines of the cafeteria. The halls of THS were once again overtaken by the spirit and imagination of students.

The Freshman worked to turn their hall into something unique, while the Sophomores were creating Mt. Olympus, around the pit. Further down the hall, the Juniors were creating a tiger ranch. The underclassman gave a valiant effort, but none were able to match up to the three year standing champs and their senior "Hall of Fame". While there were plaques for each senior, Mr. Wilson, Mrs. Urdang and the rest of the administration were star-born with their names imprinted on the "THS Boulevard".

A. Zadourian enjoys helping out with the senior decorations.

What is the seniors theme?

Happy on the job, A. Catalano gives a smile.

L. Barker enjoys the show, just as much as the audience.

"Mama in her teddy, (T. Migel), and I in my cap", narrates E. Kristensen.

"We Wish You a Merry Christmas".

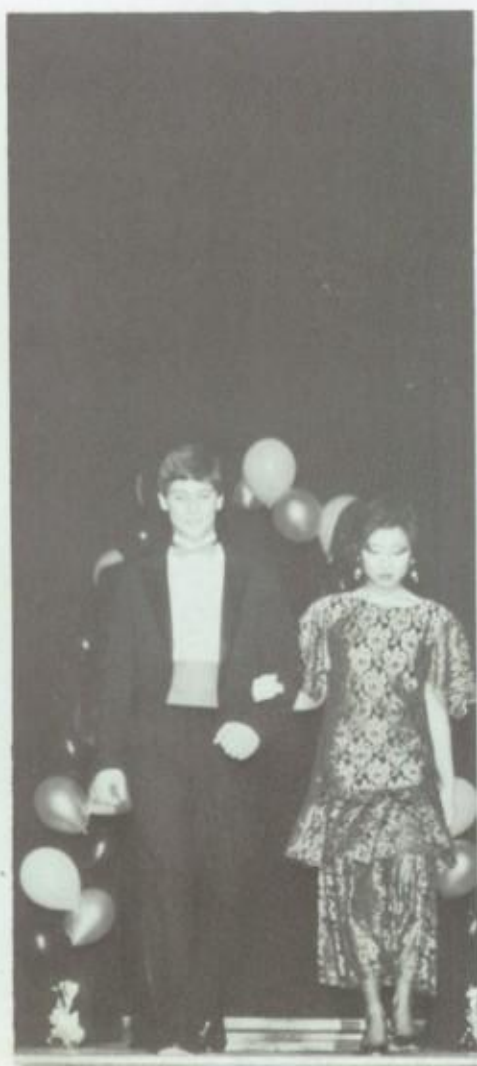

L. Maxwell and K. Bohlin are in a daze.

"Peekaboo", says R. Alem.

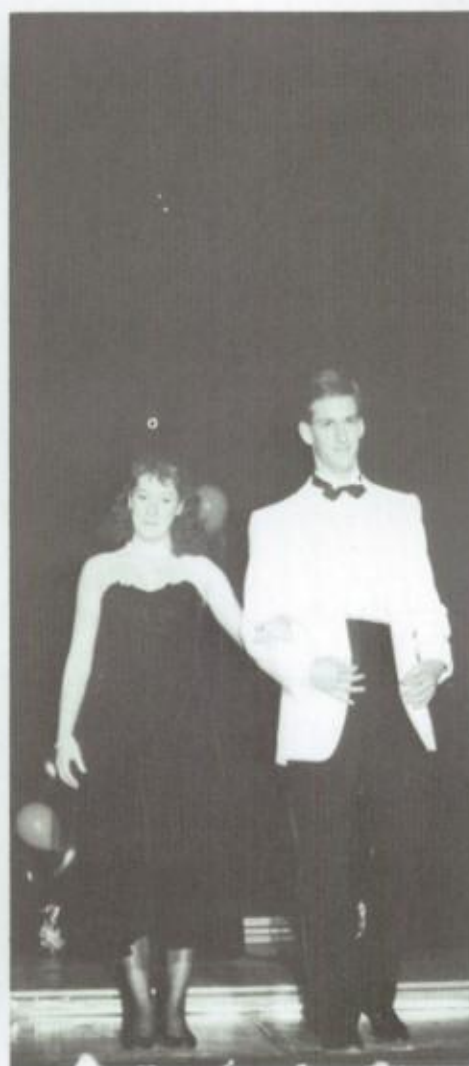

The seniors did a spoof of "Twas the Night Before Christmas," or rather, "It was the Night Before the Night Before Christmas." Unfortunately Santa was jailed because of President Reagan's a.k.a. R. Volin, new tax reform, as "charity was not deductible this fiscal year." The children were disappointed, but luckily, David Lee Roth, a.k.a. S. Amendola, saved the day as he brought presents for all. At the conclusion of the play, everyone joined the cast in singing "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

OLYMPICS

After an awesome solo, C. Kateris acknowledges his screaming fans.

Thanks to the time and devotion of Mr. Luther, Leigh Barker- the Olympic Committee Chairperson- Jim Brown and his crew, the eighth annual THS Olympics was a great success! The underclassmen put up a strong fight in one of the closest Olympics yet. However, the class of 1987 clinched their imminent victory in the closing events.

Participating in the Olympics, makes M. Adlersberg happy.

R. Volin goes to war during the Olympics.

For one of the first times in the history of the Olympics, the fate of the seniors were to be determined by the 3-legged race and the pie-eating contest. It was all the more exciting, however, to watch, as the underclassmen went down in defeat to the senior class of 1987. The juniors came in a close second, with the sophomores right behind and the freshmen, who received the sportsmanship award, following valiantly.

G. Beiber and V. Wulfsohn lead the frosh with their spirit.

Battle Of The Bands

Proudly, S. Amendola sits at his drums.

The 1987 Battle of the Bands was a big success this year, as crowds packed the auditorium to see the four competing bands in action. The groups showed an interesting variety of music ranging from jazz to rock. The bands featured were "Connections", "Gentlemen Unknown", "Promotion," and Battle of the Bands veterans, "Anonymous". For "Anonymous", this was their final performance on the THS stage, ending their five year history. Anonymous finished their final set in style with their blend of jazz-funk instrumentals that they are famous for. Highlights of the evening included a guest vocal spot for Junior, Dave Simon, during "Connections" set. Also Junior, Rachel Soloman, captivated the crowd with her strong singing as she did a Pat Benatar song for the freshman band "Gentlemen Unknown". The sophomore band "Promotion" won the prize in the high school category, and are the first band to win the battle since "Anonymous" started its winning streak five years ago. "Anonymous" also won in the out of town category in this years' show.

1986 B.C.S.L. American Division
League Champions

The Tenaflly High School Varsity soccer team began the season with high hopes. These hopes were for success and to try and once again return the League Title to T.H.S..

The potent offense paced by Co-Captain Dror Bakshi's 10 goals led the team to an overall record of 11-6-1 with bids in both the State and County tournaments. The defense, led by goalkeepers David Puteska and Joey Maklansky and backed by the strong playing of Cameron Logan, David Webber and Mike Jacobs, turned back 280 shots enroute to 9 shutouts in 18 games. The center of the team came not from a player, but from eighth year coach Bill Stegmayer. Coach Stegmayer provided the leadership and expertise without which the team could not have succeeded. The continued solid play of Co-Captain and third year varsity player Richard Volin, coupled with the strength shown by senior forwards Glenn Glazer and Harout Kalachian, provided the final pieces to the puzzle that was the Tigers 1986 season.

The highlight of the Tigers season came with back to back victories over Englewood and Fort Lee, capturing the B.C.S.L. American Division League Title for the first time in 7 years. The winning of the League Title fulfilled the Tigers most important preseason goal and provided a final and unforgettable ending to the season.

Senior All League fullback Cameron Logan places his full concentration and effort into launching the ball into space.

Tiger football power has always been a high point of the fall sports season. However, the 1986 season proved to be a disappointing one. Beset by injuries to starters such as Rich Thomas and Bobby Gansel the team struggled through the season. The extremely difficult schedule, which saw the Tigers facing perennial league powers such as River Dell, added to the challenge. The team responded to the leadership of Co-Captains Don Faley and Rich Thomas and supported the efforts of Coach Burke and his assistants. Perseverance paid off when the Tigers defeated their archrivals Dumont on Thanksgiving by a score of 28 to 12. This victory served as the first time a visiting team has won the game since 1976. The season ending victory rewarded the team for their hard work and positive attitude.

Y. Izumikawa sets for the killer spike.

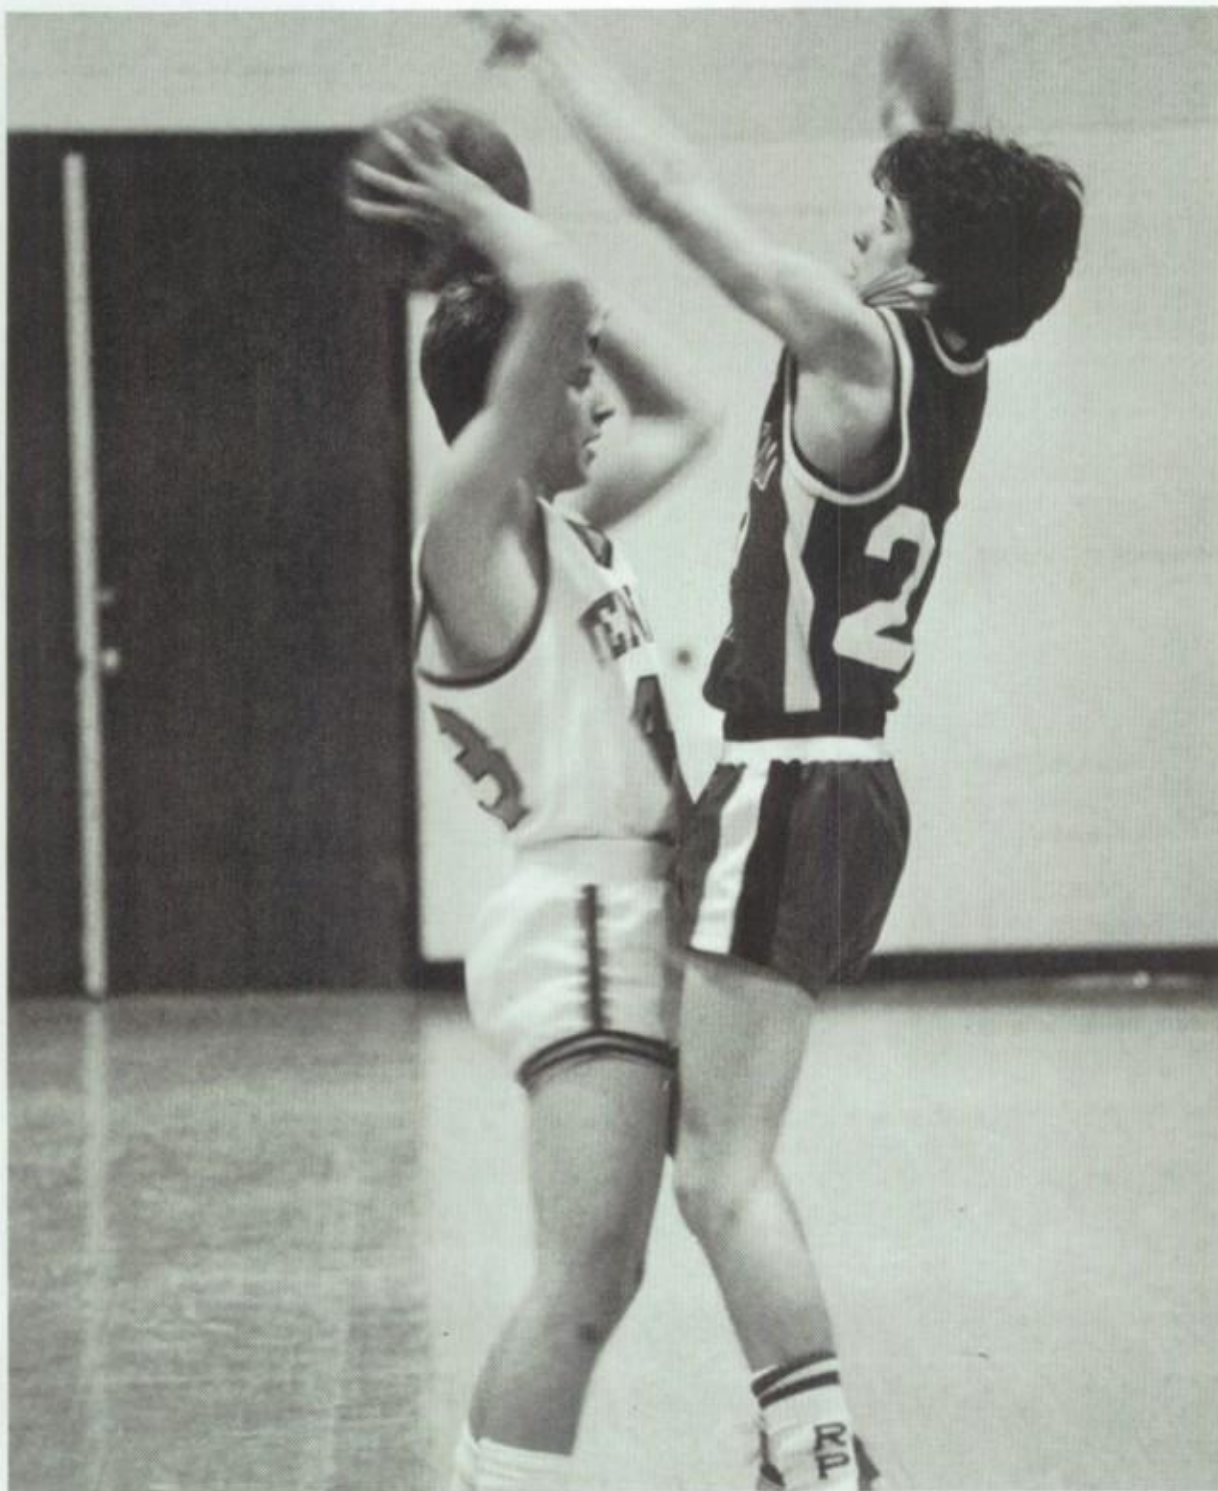

Up for grabs.

The Girls Volleyball team repeated its BCSL American League Championship, placed 4th in the William Paterson Tournament, were quarter-finalists in the Bergen County Tournament, and semi-finalists in the State Group III Sectional Tournament. All this with only three returning letter winners—Captains Brigitte Raczkowski and Pam Kessioglou, and senior Yuko Izumikawa. Hard work, dedication, offense changes, and defense realignments proved worthwhile as the young team won 14 of its first 15 games and finished with a 21-5 record. Pam, Yuko, and Jennifer Friedman shared the setting duties to run the Tiger offense. They set the ball to Brigitte, and juniors Debbie Barlowe, Chris Poggi, and Joanne Hasenstab—the power spikers on the team. Defensive serving duties were the responsibility of sophomore Jennifer Kinsler, junior Valerie Rogers and seniors Leslie Kahn and Annie Chen. Five members of the team received post-season honors including Brigitte Raczkowski's placement on First Team All County. The Tigers will have 6 players returning to the '87 squad so should repeat their accomplishments next year.

Under the leadership of a new coach, Mr. Mayfield, the 1987 basketball team worked to improve both speed and endurance. Many fine individual performances lifted team spirit. Seniors J. von Dohlen and D. Palifroni provided both leadership and strong scoring performances; as did the strength of supporting cast N. Biscaldi and K. Eckhardt. With many experienced juniors and sophomores, the talented squad should look forward to several league leading seasons.

One big happy family.

The '87 Winter Track Team had a very successful season. Seniors Brian Shih, Jon Moss, and Jon Weisgal led the team in hurdling, and Leigh Barker and Louise Wulfsohn jumped their way to many victories. Juniors Matt Wein, Chris Poggi, and Katie Waterman were also commended for their high level of achievement.

Coach Sutera felt that the 1987 varsity team was young and needed to build experience through rigorous practices. Team captains Don Faley, Rich Thomas and Cameron Logan, added to the bulk of the group's strength in the mid to upper weight classes. Several seniors contributed to the depth of the squad including: Mark Baisley, Ted Manton, Steve Taylor, and heavyweight Mike Boden. Coach Suterra believed the team can reach its goals for many successful seasons ahead.

After struggling at the start of the season, the girls' basketball team rebounded with several strong performances. Coach Jaeger was impressed by the hard work and positive responses made by the squad. Strong performances by senior captain Brigitte Razkowski, Joanne Hasenstab and Phillipa Booth fueled the Tigers' improved record. Team spirit and improved skills should make this squad a strong contender in the future.

Captains M. Mahoney and T. Migel rile up the crowd.

Cheerleading has come a long way since it's beginnings nearly ten decades ago. In 1927 Cheerleading began it's entrance into the 20th century with the feeling that it would no longer just be tolerated but instead was to be praised.

The fall cheerleaders upheld this tradition with constant support of the fall teams. While helping the soccer team win a League Title and standing by the football team during a rough season they never lost their smiles or support for the teams of T.H.S.

Surprise!

K. Jahoda flashes her winning smile.

T. Migel steals the show.

Winter Cheerleaders: J. Gardes, K. Ophir, A. Catalano, L. Cutro, K. Kurge, K. Jahoda, J. Cornelius, C. McKenna, J. Dickman, A. Luchow, C. Byrne.

Chatting on the side keeps the girls alert.

Pom-Poms cause static cling for cheerleaders.

Although they may go by many names such as song leader, yell leader or spirit leader, we know them best as cheerleaders. In the winter season the cheerleaders led by Kandra Jahoda and Jamie Cornelius, and supported with the inclusion of several freshman, proved that they were always ready to cheer on our sports teams. The number and attitude of the freshman members of the squad proved that cheerleading will continue for many years at T.H.S.

The Spring Track team was expected to have a promising season under the strong leadership of Senior captains Leigh Barker, Louise Wulfsohn, Jon Weisgal, and Neal Biscaldi. Hey Joe,
It's been fun knowing you!
And It will be wierd not seeing your face or any other familiar face next year.
Lets just thank god its finally over. Good Luck with EVERYTHING!

Love,
Manuel
